

City of Robertsdale P r o c l a m a t i o n

WHEREAS, Strong family relationships constitute the foundation of our community, and alienating behaviors are frequently present in high-conflict divorces, separations, and asymmetrical custody arrangements; and behaviors such as speaking negatively about a parent to, or in front of, a child and interfering with parenting time and communication can not only destroy the bond between a loving parent and child, but can cause a child mental and emotional harm, as such alienating tactics are confusing, frightening, and rob children of their sense of security; and;

WHEREAS, Parental alienation takes advantage of the innocent and impressionable, depriving children of their right to freely love and be loved by both parents and extended family; and;

WHEREAS, Mental professionals agree that the negative effects of parental alienation can following a child into adulthood with tragic consequences; and;

WHEREAS, The recently published Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM-5) made several references to the dysfunctional family dynamic of alienation to be a form of psychological child abuse; and;

WHEREAS, Approximately 40,000 children in the State of Alabama subjected to child custody determination in 2013; and;

WHEREAS, Parental Alienation Prevention Week is intended to increase the knowledge and understanding of this problem to help Alabamians, institutions, the legal and mental health community, leaders to better identify and combat such abusive behavior to children; and

WHEREAS, Our laws must recognize Parental Alienations as a: legal cause of action, mandating severe monetary and criminal penalties for the parent and those who assist this parent in destroying the sacred parent/child bond; and

WHEREAS, The organizers of Parental Alienation Prevention Week are asking everyone to blow soap bubbles at noon on April 25th to show their support in spreading the simple message that children should be allowed to freely love both of their parents and extended family members; each free flowing bubble representing the love a child should have for his or her mother and father.

NOW THEREFORE, I Charles H. Murphy, Mayor of the City of Robertsdale do hereby proclaim April 25th, 2016, as:
